

Cross Ranch Interpretive Programs

Friday, June 17

6:30 p.m.: Birding 101 with Bryan Dinkins

Meet at the amphitheater to learn about the basics behind birding and to see what birds visit us at the ranch! Don't forget field guides, binoculars and bug spray!

9 p.m.: Birds of the Backyard Video

Come to our backyard to learn what's in your backyard! Meet at the amphitheater where you'll learn the birds you see at home, why they come to your house and what is in your feeder that they like. Fresh popcorn will be served, but please bring your own beverage and bug spray! See you there...

Saturday, June 18

4 p.m.: Dakota Explorers: Beaks, Feet and Feathers

Bring your beaks and feet down to the amphitheater to learn about bird adaptations.

10 p.m.: When the Sun Goes Down..Afraid of the Dark?

Meet in front of the River Peoples Visitor Center where we'll start out into the night to see what happens at Cross Ranch after dark. We'll be discussing what senses are needed and used to get around when the sun goes down. No need to bring flashlights!

Sunday, June 19

9-11 a.m.: Coffee and Conversation

Stop in the River Peoples Visitor Center where you can meet and greet other visitors and park staff. We'll provide the coffee, you just need to bring some conversation.

10:30 a.m.: Guided Hike: Cross Ranch Trails Day!!

Join a ranger for a hike along the Missouri River.

1-3 p.m.: Link Cabin Open House

Stop in and tour the Link Cabin where you may also enjoy refreshments.
